COMMON ORDER

These two petition have been filed by the same petitioner praying to transfer the case in CC.No.7 of 2017 pending on the file of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Tiruvallur and another one i.e. CC.No.58 of 2017 pending on the file of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvavarur to any other Court at chennai.

2. The facts in brief are as follows:

The petitioner is engaged in business of manufacturing pharmaceutical drugs at Amristar. The respondent inspected the premises of the petitioner and took multi vitamin drops and Cabimazole Tablets for examination in Government laboratory. On analysis, it was found that the products were not upto the standard, for which, a complaint was registered by the respondent under the provisions of Drugs and Cosmetics Act. The cases were taken on file in CC.No.7 of 2017 on the file of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Tiruvallur and another one i.e. CC.No.58 of 2017 on the file of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvavarur.

3. The petitioners, filed affidavit in support of these petitions, has submitted that the head office based at Amristar and since two cases are filed against the company one at Tiruvavarur and another one at Thiruvallur. It would be difficult for travel both the places and defend himself before the Courts. The petitioner would submit that it would be convenient for him both the cases are transferred to any of the Court at Chennai which would enable him to conduct the cases with peace.

4. This Court has heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the respondent and perused the documents.

5. The learned Government Advocate has no serious objection for transferring the cases.

6. Considering facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to tag the matters together and this Court directs the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvavarur to transfer the proceedings in CC.No.58 of 2017 to the file of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Tiruvallur forthwith.

7. In the result, both the petitions are allowed.
Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
